DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This Application contains claims to the following distinct embodiments of the invention :

Group I – the device illustrated in Fig 1 for example.

Group II – the device illustrated in Fig 6 for example.

Group III – the device illustrated in Fig 10 for example.

Group IV – the device illustrated in Fig 12 for example.

1. While it appears that some claims may be generic to one of more species, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed and list claims readable thereon.

Prior to examination, it appears that full search and consideration of specific details of the many different embodiments in this one Application places undue burden on the examiner since those embodiments are presumed to be separately patentable and the proper search for each one is not required for the others. But it is important to note which, if any, of the claims are generic to other species since withdrawn-status dependent claims that are specific to non-elected embodiment(s) may be rejoined and considered in this Application if generic claims are indicated to contain allowable subject matter. Similarly, it is required that Applicant indicate which embodiment(s) of the invention any new or amended claims read on.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
